

Good Nutrition for Every Age

Elderly Nutrition

Congregate and home delivered meals are provided to help older persons remain healthy, active and independent. There are 11 Senior Dining Sites in Grant County. Call the Aging & Disability Resource Center at 723-6113 or 1-877-794-2372 for information.

FoodShare Program

Purchase food at a grocery store with a plastic “Quest Card”. Monthly benefit amounts are based on net income and household size. For more information and to apply, contact the Dept. of Social Services at 1-888-794-5780 or visit the web at www.access.wisconsin.gov

FoodShare Helpline

Call Second Harvest Foodbank at 1-877-366-3635

Free/Reduced School Meals

Free and reduced priced breakfast and lunch programs are available at Grant County Schools. Contact your child’s school for income guidelines and an application.

Low Income Food Exchange (LIFE)

Provides free food monthly in large quantities for families in the Lancaster, Bloomington, Cassville, Fennimore and Potosi areas. For more information, contact Sandy Kalnins at 723-2691.

Wisconsin Nutrition Education Program (WNEP)

WNEP helps families improve their food security through education. Families of individuals who receive FoodShare (or who are eligible) can learn through WNEP. For more information, contact the Grant County UW-Extension Office at 723-2125 or <http://grant.uwex.edu/>.

Women, Infants and Children Nutrition Program (WIC)

WIC provides food and nutrition information to help keep pregnant and breastfeeding women, infants and children under five years healthy and strong. Call the Grant County Health Dept. at 723-6416 or 1-800-338-3192 for the nearest location.

Grant County Hunger Council

Our mission is to alleviate hunger, food insecurity, and the effects of poverty in Grant County through education, coordination, advocacy and service.
